THE BABY FRIENDLY WINE ROUTE

THURSDAY, SEP 04, 2008

One of the best things about living in the GTA is being a stone's throw from one of the best wine regions in the world.

We remember spending lazy weekends driving from winery to winery, sampling the vintages, and exploring the gorgeous countryside of the Niagara region. We thought that our pint-sized entourage had put an end to such excursions, but the two moms behind justthefactsbaby.com have just added The Baby Friendly Wine Route to their free collection of online Baby Route maps, highlighting child-friendly places to go.

Just in time for the Niagara Wine Festival, The Baby Friendly Wine Route outlines stroller-friendly wineries, local restaurants with child-friendly menus and change tables, and the locations of local parks and attractions for some play time while our palates cleanse between vintages. Armed with the details of all of the child-friendly amenities in Niagara, the only whines we expect on our next trip through Niagara are Shiraz and Chardonnay.

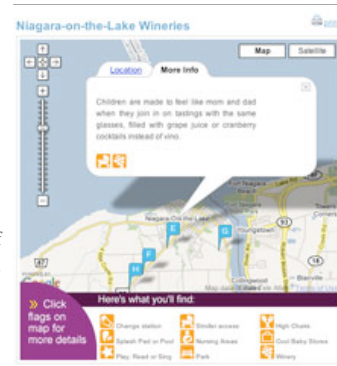

All we need now is a designated driver who is happy to supervise nap time.
